JOP2 Lesson 5 — Overview

Paul's second journey began a few months after the Council of Jerusalem. Paul chose as his new companion Silas. Traveling on land, the party went through Cecilia, surely visiting Tarsus, then on to the cities of Derbe and Lystra, where churches had been established earlier.

Paul spends the winter in Antioch of Syria. While there he plans his second journey to revisit the churches he started and see how they were doing. He went to Barnabas and told him about the second journey. Barnabas wanted to go and to take John Mark again. But Paul refused because John had left them on the first journey. The disagreement led to a split between the two apostles. Barnabas and John Mark embarked on their own journey while Paul invited Silas to travel with him. This trip began around 49 AD.

Antioch to Tarsus?

Paul was born in Tarsus and while the Bible does not say that he stopped there we assume that he did because it was on the way.

Tarsus to Derbe & Lystra

Paul and Silas journeyed on to Derbe and Lystra. In Lystra they visited the home of Timothy and invite him to come with them on their journey.

Lystra to Troas

Paul was in Troas for a very short time because God spoke to Paul in a vision. In that dream a man of Macedonia was saying to Paul: Come over into Macedonia, and help us. (Acts 16:9, KJV) After the dream, the three missionaries gathered their stuff and sailed for Macedonia.

Troas to Philippi

Paul sails to Neapolis but does not stay there. He is heading for the chief city of Macedonia, Philippi. There were no Jewish churches in the city because there were very few Jews there. Many things happened in this city as we will find out later. Today we just want you to get an idea of where all Paul visited on this first journey.

Philippi To Thessalonica

Passing through Amphipolis and Apollonia, Paul and his companions arrive in Thessalonica. There was a Jewish synagogue in the city and the Jewish people began to resent the three preachers who had to leave quickly at night.

From Thessalonica to Berea

After leaving Thessalonica, the apostles headed west to Berea. Berean is where the name BEREAN comes from. The Berean's were Bible students and checked out what Paul was preaching in the Word of God.

Berea to Athens

Athens was a city full of great beauty and still is today. It was also a city full of false religion and superstition. Paul preaches here from a famous hill called Mars Hill.

Athens to Corinth

Paul leaves Athens and sailed to Corinth. In Corinth Paul meets a famous Bible husband named Aquila and his wife Priscilla. The apostle Paul worked and lived with them. 1st and 2nd Corinthians was written by Paul to this city.

Corinth to Ephesus

The apostle left Corinth with Aquila and Priscilla. In Ephesus, they preached the gospel of the grace of God. Later Paul writes the book of Ephesians to the church that was started here. The apostles later bade Aquila and Priscilla farewell and headed home.

Home

Ephesus To Antioch Syria

The apostles sailed from Ephesus to Caesarea on their way back home to Antioch Syria. They stopped off at Jerusalem to salute the church there and concluded their trip returning to Antioch of Syria.
